

About Marie Besson

Born in France, Marie Besson paints since childhood. She is an addict to creating. Marie's art refers to the human links, woman's health, nature and the connections in the Universe. Sacred energy, our essence, is suggested into each of her artwork.

Education :

She has learned the traditional techniques at an early age, as she was part of an art studio outside the school hours.

In 2003, she was exchange student in the United-States and a member of the National Art Honor Society Club.

She received the NAHS Certificate in Greensboro, NC.

Marie first focused on another career, with a Master Degree in International Business Negotiation at La Sorbonne University in Paris, France.

At the age of 34, she started her own business and she is now a full-time abstract artist.

Events :

Her art has been showed in France and in the United-States.

Today is the right time to invest in her artwork as she is developing to an international level.

Marie Besson • Statement

Marie abstraction artworks aim to awaken and to question feminine in its entire singularity. She values and shares sacred feminine energy through her art.

With mixed media artworks, Marie refers to the human links, woman's health, nature and the connections in the Universe.

Her art pieces are available in all sizes, in order to fit any type of rooms, from corridors to large living rooms.

Womanity paintings concern the body, the Dna, the archives and the vibrations. The palette is made of a range of pink and red, but some contrasting and metallic tones occur.

O Eternity is a serie of minimalist illustrations and lithographies, manifesting the water dimension with lightness and sheer lines. The motion in each illustration is the one of an introspection going toward an expansion; one unmeasurable and unquantifiable infinity.

Water Treasure evokes the sacred dimension of the water. Blue is a tribute to Earth as the gold represents the divine energy uniting and connecting us together.

ABSTRACT ART

○ ETERNITY

The sacred dimension of water, main substance on Mother Earth such as inside each individual's body, is manifested with lightness in a series of sheer lines illustrations.

The movement is the one of an introspection going toward an expansion;
one unmeasurable and unquantifiable infinity.
Breathing joins fluidity inside the ○ shape.

What the eye perceives as empty is also full of information.
